

NAME: _____ Date: _____

War of 1812 Spy Profile

Your group has been assigned to uncover information about a key person from the War of 1812. Was this person a spy, or were they involved in intelligence gathering during the war? Reveal the answer to this question by using your research to profile the person below.

My Spy's Profile

 Insert copy of photo or drawing here	Person's name _____ Nationality _____ Gender (Male/Female) _____ Date of birth _____ Date of death _____ Occupation _____
---	---

1. What role did this person played in the War of 1812?

2. Was this person a spy or someone who gathered intelligence? Were they forced to be a spy, or did they willingly participate in espionage? Show evidence.

NAME: _____ Date: _____

War of 1812 Spy Profile continued...

- 3. What were some of the challenges or obstacles that this person faced?

- 4. What information or knowledge did this person need to acquire in order to perform their role in the War of 1812? What chances did they take to obtain this information?

- 5. How would you describe this person’s role in the War of 1812—a minor player or a major player? Choose one and show evidence to support your decision.

- 6. Who worked or associated with this person directly or indirectly during the war? What kind of information did they provide about the War of 1812?

- 7. What are some unique qualities or characteristics about the person who you are researching? In your opinion, how does this person break the typical stereotype of being a spy or someone who works in intelligence?

- 8. If you were to write a script for a movie or television show about this person, what scenes would you put in it, and what characters would you portray? Why?

